

Enjoy the 2005 Free Family Film Festival at

The Los Angeles County Museum of Art - LACMA

All Photos from Aug 5th "Babe"

Free Family Films on Friday Nights in August!
Even the Parking is Free!!!

Last summer families watched The Wizard of Oz, Willie Wonka, Alice in Wonderland, and Herbie the Luv Bug. With such a huge response for this year, we have moved to the LACMA East Amphitheater area.

Bring your family for an entire evening of fun and free entertainment! - Including the Kids Zone for pre-movie fun and games Don't forget your lawn chairs and blankets.

Films provided by KIDS FIRST! Film Club, a project of the Coalition for Quality. Children's Media NexGen films are presented in collaboration with VXP - The Vision Experience.

Here is our Outdoor Film Schedule

August 5-Babe

August 12-Mad Hot Ballroom

August 19-Iron Giant

August 26-Inspector Gadget's Biggest Caper Ever plus a special surprise

The grounds open at 7:00pm followed by the Pre-Entertainment in the Kids Zone.

Feature film begins by 8:30 p.m. in the amphitheater-LACMA East. Come early to get a GOOD SPOT. You are welcome to bring a picnic basket plus traditional movie concessions will be available.

After 7 p.m. free parking is available at the museum in the Ogden Drive and Spaulding Avenue lots. Easy access to the amphitheater from 6th Street.

Los Angeles County Museum of Art
5905 Wilshire Blvd.
Los Angeles, CA 90036

Museum Information: 323 857-6000
NexGen Information: 323 857-4737
Education Department Programs: 323 857-6512
www.lacma.org or www.thevisionexperience.com

